If reimbursement of GST is intended extra over the quoted prices the bidder must specifically say so. In absence of such a stipulation it will be presumed that prices quoted are firm and final and no claim on account of such duties will be entertained after opening of the tender. If a bidder chooses to quote a price inclusive of any duty and does not confirm inclusive of such duty so included is firm and final, he should clearly indicate rate of such duty and quantum of GST included in the price. Failure to do so GST so may result in ignoring of such offers summarily. If a bidder is exempted from payment of Customs Duty up on any value of supplies from them, they should clearly state that no GST will be charged by them up to the limit GST of exemption which they may have. If any concession is available in regard to rate / quantum of Customs same will be charged. It should be brought out clearly. Stipulations like GST was presently not available to the bidder but if it becomes leviable later on ;will not be accepted unless in such cases it is clearly stated by the bidder that the excise duty will not be charged by him even if it becomes applicable latter on irrespective of the bidders who fail to which is normally Comply with this requirement their quoted prices shall be loaded with the quantum of excise duty applicable on the item in question for the purpose of comparing their prices with other bidders . The same logic applies with the Customs Duty and GST also.

11.2 The lowest bid will be decided on the basis of lowest price quoted by the particular bidder as per the bidding format or as per lowest landed price to IRMRA

11.3 If there is discrepancy in the unit price that is obtained by multiplying the unit price and quantity, the unit price will prevail and the total price will be corrected. If there is discrepancy between words and figures, the amount in words will prevail for calculating price.

11.4 The lowest acceptable bid will be considered further for placement of contract/supply order after complete clarification and price negotiations as decided by the Buyer. The buyer will have right to award the contract to different bidders for being lowest in particular items. The buyer also reserves right to do Apportionment of Quantity, if it is convinced that lowest bidder is not in a position to supply full quantity in stipulated time.

11.5 The rates/ prices should be quoted in INR/International Currency (if applicable) in words as well as figures. If bidder chooses to bid for less than four categories of items for which bids have been called, he has to quote for all the items contained in that particular category failing which the bid will be treated as "non-responsive".

11.6 Rates should be valid for one year from the date of signing of the agreement.
